Thursday, February 23, 2012

TrioDance Collective- Call for Proposals

triodancecollective@gmail.com

▶ Share | Print | Download

TrioDance Collective is curating an afternoon and evening of proposed works from artistically inclined and dedicated choreographers. As a company, we value communication, artistic vision, innovation, and commitment. In efforts to offer performance opportunity and enrich communal support, we are presenting these two performances at Buttenweiser Hall at the 92nd St Y. The gathering of a variety of like-minded dance artists provides us with a platform to establish an open dialogue among artists, and work generously within our shared discipline.

Dates:
April 27th 2012: Matinee 1:pm, and Evening performance 8:pm (tech and performance will be on the same day).

To apply:
Send a DVD or link of proposed work and a brief description of thework along with your bio, and a paragraph stating your interest to triodancecollective@gmail.com. Please use "Proposal" as your subject line.

Proposed work can be up to 15 minutes in length. Also, please send footage of the piece proposed in its entirety. Rehearsal footage is perfectly acceptable if it is currently in process. There is a $30 application fee. Please note, a production fee may apply depending on our received funding.

Deadline for Proposals is: March 17, 2012 (postmarked).

Send application fee (checks made out to TrioDance Collective), and DVD (if you do not have a link to your work) to:

TrioDance Collective
324 East 93rd St, Apt. 5E
New York, NY 10128

triodancecollective@gmail.com