Come share the stage with Gallim Dance and other local Brooklyn artists! Gallim Dance is thrilled to co-host the Clinton Hill Arts Celebration on Saturday, September 29, 2012 from 12-6pm on Clinton Ave between Fulton St. and Atlantic Ave. We are currently accepting applications for performing and visual artists interested in having their work showcased!

- 15-20 minutes performance slot on our outdoor mainstage
- 1 table to display visual artwork in the church of St. Luke and St. Matthew
- Audience between 300-500 people throughout the celebration
- Publicity (including eblasts to over 7,000 people, local Brooklyn print listings, and online media exposure)
- Press materials displayed at a shared event table
- Networking opportunities with fellow Brooklyn-based artists
- Opportunity to sell your work to the public
- Free ticket to our new series Second Sunday performance of your choice
- Access to free classes during the event

The block party will feature activities for all ages, food stands, local merchants, music, dancing and more. Help us celebrate the new partnership between Gallim Dance and the Church of St. Luke and St. Matthew's and the kick-off of Clinton Hill Arts monthly arts programming.
