Jodi Kaplan & Associates is accepting submissions for showcasing with our agency at Booking Dance Festival on Saturday, January 11, 2020 at Jazz at Lincoln Center during APAP. The deadline to apply for this incredible opportunity is October 1, 2019.

Click here to fill in an online Booking Dance Festival 2020 showcase application and read on to learn more about the benefits of showcasing at Booking Dance Festival.

Booking Dance Festival offers an APAP experience unlike any other. From networking opportunities and Producer Jodi Kaplan's incredible success rate of performance bookings to artistic commissions and connections with renowned presenters, JK&A's APAP showcases put artists at the center of it all.

Companies receive a fully produced showcase in a state-of-the-art theater with the added bonus at this year's Booking Dance Festival 2020 of a media package valued at $500 built into JK&A's standard showcasing fees! A detailed price breakdown of showcasing fees is available on the online application.

Booking Dance Festival NYC at Jazz at Lincoln Center has successfully connected showcasing artists with top national and international presenters for the past seven years. Our magnificent venue features 4,500 square feet of glass overlooking Central Park, the perfect backdrop for a magical evening of dance showcasing at APAP.

Moving into our 8th annual high-profile dance extravaganza, we invite artists to apply for consideration to participate in the lineup.
