More about DB (visit our website too!) :

Out of a pool of applicants, six choreographers are selected to showcase their work with an eye to advancing their careers towards a Broadway choreographers job. Our selection committee is often comprised of theatre's foremost talents including – but not limited to – Tony Award winners Jerry Mitchell (Legally Blond), Kathleen Marshall (Grease), Rob Ashford (Promises, Promises), along with director Larry Fuller (Evita), Robert La Fosse, Michael Grief,Jack Viertel, Andrew Lippa, director Jack O'Brien (Coast of Utopia), producer Kevin McCollum (Avenue Q, 9-5), composer Stephen Schwartz (Pippin,Wicked), and the legendary dancer/choreographer Marge Champion.

The DanceBreak Foundation's overarching goal is to promote and advance the art form of musical theatre dance while creating a broader audience for rising musical theatre artists and their work. DanceBreak aligns with this goal by providing the financial, administrative, and technical support necessary to develop new choreographers who are diverse in their ethnicity, training, style and background. By promoting emerging choreographers and their work, we will enrich the Broadway community, the dance community, and the arts in New York City.
