Bridge For Dance is looking for new and inspiring choreographers to set work for our Spring 2019 Season of SUBMERGE. More information about our performance workshop is below!

At Bridge For Dance, we pride ourselves in offering inclusive and open classes to a wide range of students. From young professionals to recreational and retired dancers, our classes cater to those looking for challenging instruction along with individualized attention.

The Adult Dance Program at Bridge For Dance also offers students two unique performance opportunities a year. Each season, all dancers are encouraged to enroll in as many Performance Workshops as they wish and all levels are welcome. These, in turn, end in two inspiring showcases in December and May.

To ensure students receive a wide range of styles and techniques, workshops are taught by both Bridge For Dance faculty as well as guest choreographers.

To apply, please send your resume, choreography/dance reel, and any other credentials that may be sufficient to felicia@bridgefordance.com. No phone calls please.
