

Saturday, February 28, 2026

eMeLe-K, "An Afro-Latin thing for Martin Luther King"

Company: Carole Alexis / Ballet des Amériques
 Venue: Teatro Latea
 Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Carole Alexis

Ballet des Amériques / Carole Alexis Ballet Theatre is thrilled to return to Teatro LATEA for eMeLe-K, "an Afro-Latin thing for Martin Luther King". The company's performances, featuring Carole Alexis' diverse choreographies, dwell on the beauty of dance movement fully aligned with the profound emotion associated with Afro Caribbean roots.

eMeLeK is a cultural and artistic project/festival presented yearly at Teatro LATEA in New York. Curated with a focus on celebrating African diasporic and Afro-Latinx culture and legacy, the festival connects to the principles of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s vision of equality, justice, healing, and reconciliation. It provides a platform for performing and visual arts, music, dance, and community dialogue, highlighting the contributions of Afro-Latinos, African Americans, and allies through artistic expression.

Come join us for an uplifting and fulfilling experience, celebrating the performing arts and creative expression. Be inspired, moved, and connected through a festival that honors culture, artistry, and community.

Carole Alexis / Ballet des Amériques
 107 Suffolk St, New York, NY 10002
 New York, NY, 10002
<https://teatrolatea.org/request-ticket-change/>

Schedule
 February 28, 2026: 3:00pm, 6:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing