Acclaimed for its adventurous short-takes format, the annual DANCENOW Festival presents a wide variety of work from some of today's most exciting choreographers. Continuing its focus on New York-based artists across generations, the 2015 Festival will feature short works by 50 emerging and established dance makers, all of whom DANCENOW has presented over the last twenty years.

The Festival will take place Wednesday-Saturday, September 9-12 at Joe's Pub at The Public. An encore performance featuring a dozen producer picks will be presented on Thursday, September 24.
