"3 Esquinas Tango Show - Alegría" is an Argentine Tango Show, held live outdoors for the first time, after coming to life as an online show performed through Zoom throughout the pandemic. There were 4 previous editions performed through Zoom.

"Alegría" is the 5th edition, taking the audience from a dark atmosphere of anxiety and despair, to a bright and happy place, where exuberant celebration is the medium to overcome hardship.

Performers are three Tango dance couples, two singers and a live pianist, all nationally and internationally renowned artists:

Directors and Dancers Andres Bravo and Sarita Apel are also the 2019 ATUSA Tango Salon Champions,

Dancers Carlos and Maureen Urrego are the 2018 ATUSA Tango Salon Champions,

Dancers Luis Ramirez and Analía Carreño judges of the international Tango Championships,

Singer Marga Jaurena a renowned Tango singer who's career included performing at the White House,

Singer Damián Fanis, who's career included performing at the official opera season at the Solís Theater and performing as a soloist in the renowned Carnaval festival in Montevideo, Uruguay.

Pianist Emiliano Messiez is the pianist of the London/ Broadway hit "Forever Tango" and he founded and directs his Tango Orchestra "Típica Messiez"
