Brooklyn Irish Dance Company

By popular demand, Brooklyn Irish Dance Company adds a second show date for their premiere production A Celtic Christmas Story. Experience the magic of Christmas with a story of friendship, love, and coming home for the holidays, presented by an all-star cast of singers and Irish dancers on Tuesday, December 18th at the historic off-Broadway establishment Theatre 80 in downtown Manhattan. This follows the sold out show on Monday, December 17th.

Brooklyn Irish Dance Company is a women owned/operated business that features performers from companies including Riverdance, Lord of the Dance, Celtic Fyre, and many more. Based in Brooklyn, Brooklyn Irish Dance Company strives to create new works as a collaborative community of dancers to break traditional boundaries and engage audiences with innovative and accessible performances of Irish dance and music. Come watch the eye-catching choreography that focuses on utilizing traditional Irish dance with a contemporary aesthetic – you will not be disappointed!
