Weekly by-donation classes in Action Theater improvisation, with Rachel Cohen. In-person and online.

Action Theater is an improvisational physical theater training, created by Ruth Zaporah (www.actiontheater.com), that offers pathways into imagination, mindfulness, sensitivity, and audacity while honing awareness of space, time, and form. It is amazing training for performers; it is also amazing training for life. Whether you're a neophyte or an experienced practitioner, come and play!
