Dancewave brings talented artists with distinct voices to lead Master Classes in a wide range of techniques and styles. An opportunity to experience current directions in contemporary dance and broaden your skillset! Join Brinda Guha in exploring contemporary Indian dance's holistic approach to combining the fundamentals of Indian Classical dance with Contemporary music and styling sensibilities. This dance seeks to investigate the communicative potential between Indian dance and world dance genres, and creates a new paradigm for effective storytelling and purpose.

Brinda Guha is a trained North Indian classical Kathak dancer with experience in Contemporary, Manipuri and Flamenco. She is the director of Kalamandir Dance Company and a principal dancer of the all-female multicultural percussive trio, Soles of Duende. She is also the curator of the Wise Fruit NYC seasonal live arts showcase.
