Fall down the rabbit hole with Columbia University Ballet Ensemble's whimsical virtual production of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland!

For Spring 2021, Columbia University dancers scattered across the world have come together to participate in this organization's second-ever virtual performance, rehearsing and filming this classic Lewis Carroll tale to a whimsical Jody Talbot score.

The performance will occur on Saturday, May 22nd at 8pm EDT via Zoom. The performance is approximately 90 minutes long with a 10 minute intermission. Admission is free. However, donations of $3 BC/CU ID, $5 general admission, or $25 for groups of 4 or more are highly recommended and appreciated. To donate and reserve your tickets, click the Eventbrite link.
