

Sunday, February 1, 2026

Anna Sokolow and the Roots of Anti-Fascist Modern Dance

Company: Sokolow Theatre/Dance Ensemble
Venue: Museum of Jewish Heritage
Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Rishika Nath

In this performance and lecture, history isn't just heard, it's felt. Anna Sokolow was a modern dance pioneer of the 20th century who contributed to the foundations of theater and dance, and exemplified socio-political commentary through art. Today, her legacy company, the Sokolow Theatre/Dance Ensemble, is collaborating with the Museum of Jewish Heritage to bring Anna's story to light. On Feb. 1st, Artistic Director of the Sokolow Theatre/Dance Ensemble Samantha Gerach traces Anna Sokolow's pivotal contributions to the anti-fascist dance movement through archival footage and live performances. Featuring Samantha's reimagination of "Slaughter of the Innocents", and "The Soldier's Wife" from Sokolow's "Kurt Weill", this is a relevant examination of choreographic activism.

February 1st, 2pm, at the Museum of Jewish Heritage, suggested $10 donation

Sokolow Theatre/Dance Ensemble
36 Battery Place #1
New York, NY, 10280
<https://mjhny.org/events/anna-sokolow-and-the-roots-of-anti-fascist-modern-dance/>

Schedule
February 1, 2026: 2:00pm

< back