AntonioBrownDance Returns to the NYU Stage with a New Evening of Dance Works!

Composed of an incredibly talented group of performing artists the works of the company blend human intimacy and a provocative movement vocabulary ranging from traditional ballet to contemporary modern and hip hop. Exploring common human behavior with elements of social and political topics, AntonioBrownDance produces works that allow for the growing socio-political international climate to become conversations within our versatile communities. AntonioBrownDance aims to bring its audiences closer to dance and movement with unique performance works.
