Martha Graham Dance Company

Comprising the "most skilled and powerful dancers you can ever hope to see" (The Washington Post), Martha Graham Dance Company performs the iconic dance maker's most celebrated work, Appalachian Spring, in concert with a Peak Performances commission, The Auditions by choreographer Troy Schumacher and composer Augusta Read Thomas. This new work has been designed to resonate with Graham's classic, which turns 75 this year. "America's foremost new-music group" (Alex Ross), the International Contemporary Ensemble joins the Graham Company for these world-class renditions of new music by Thomas and the original Pulitzer Prize-winning score for Appalachian Spring by Aaron Copland.
