For over 50 years, Ballet Hispánico School of Dance has been at the forefront of dance education, blending technical brilliance with an inspired understanding of craft. We proudly announce that registration is now open for In-Person NYC and Digital Auditions for our 2025 Summer and 2025-2026 Academic Year Programs. In-person auditions will be held at Ballet Hispánico, located at 167 W. 89th Street, New York, NY 10024.

As an accredited institution by the National Association of Schools of Dance, Ballet Hispánico offers exceptional training for students of all levels, from age 2 through adulthood. Our programs offer classical ballet, Spanish Dance, and various contemporary techniques, creating an environment where dancers of all ages can explore their full potential and discover the transformative power of movement.

The In-Person Auditions will be held on April 5 and May 3, 2025. The audition registration fee is $20. For detailed information and to register, visit: <https://www.ballethispanico.org/school/auditions/NYCAuditions> or contact school@ballethispanico.org.

Digital Auditions Applicants may also submit a Digital Video Audition on a rolling basis for both Summer and School Year Programs. Video audition submission deadline is May 5, 2025 for Summer programs consideration. The audition registration fee is $20. "At Ballet Hispánico, we've dedicated more than 50 years of service to making dance education accessible to our communities," said Michelle Manzanales, Director, School of Dance, Ballet Hispánico. "Our mission to provide world-class dance training for dancers of all ages is deeply intertwined with our passion for lifting up our students and artists. More than simply dance education, we work to support the development of overall life skills: the ability to access joy and own and express one's individual voice."

LA ACADEMIA: SCHOOL YEAR PROGRAMS

The Professional Studies & Pa'lante Scholarship Program: Study full-time under Ballet Hispánico's unique training model || Ages 15+ || September to May Professional Studies is the highest training level of Ballet Hispánico's La Academia (The Academy). Students train Monday to Friday, 9am-5pm, and all students are eligible to audition for varied tuition support through the Pa'lante Scholarship Program. Dancers in the program study and train under the unique Ballet Hispánico training model in ballet, contemporary and Spanish Dance, learn Ballet Hispánico repertory, and have numerous performance opportunities. This exclusive program has limited enrollment and is open to all dancers of all backgrounds.

Pre-Professional Division: After-school offerings designed to develop young artists wanting high-level training in a nurturing environment. || Ages 7-23 || September to June

Designed for young artists seeking high-level training in classical ballet, contemporary techniques, Spanish Dance, and performance skills. The program is also especially helpful for students interested in attending performing arts schools, conservatory/university programs, and/or those pursuing a career in dance.

The Ballet Hispánico School of Dance is a leading center of excellence in dance education—serving over 1,000 students and celebrating more than 50 years of dance. Accredited by the National Association of Schools of Dance, the School provides exceptional training across a wide range of dance forms, including Ballet, Flamenco, Hip-Hop, Latin Rhythms, Afro-Caribbean, Salsa, Jazz, Tap, and more. From early childhood to adult classes, the School fosters artistry, creativity, and community in a welcoming, inclusive environment.

Ballet Hispánico was founded on the principle that everyone deserves dance, quality dance training and innovative performances. In creating the company in 1970, Tina Ramirez shattered a glass ceiling—challenging iconic representations and exposing the joy and celebration to be found in Latinidad.

Today, as the largest Latino cultural organization in the United States and one of America's Cultural Treasures, Ballet Hispánico has performed for more than 2.5 million people worldwide. As it looks to the future, Ballet Hispánico is committed to continue nurturing the next generation of artists and leaders, inspiring audiences, and creating a vibrant legacy through dance.
