Philadelphia's premier contemporary ballet company, BalletX is hailed as an "epicenter of creation" by Dance Magazine and a "place of choreographic innovation" by The New Yorker. The trailblazing company offers extraordinary dance experiences that inspire human connection, crafted by choreographers from around the world. This season, BalletX returns with three New York premieres that expand on the ballet form, including Takehiro Ueyama's Heroes, Jodie Gate's Beautiful Once, and Loughlan Prior's Macaroni. Led by Christine Cox, the company has commissioned 140 world premiere ballets by nearly 80 choreographers in its 19-year history, standing as a testament to BalletX's commitment to artistic excellence.
