ABOUT HUDSON RIVER PARK

Hudson River Park is a 550-acre riverfront park and estuarine sanctuary spanning four miles along the west side of Manhattan, from the northern boundary of Battery Park City in Tribeca to W 59 St. in Hell's Kitchen. The largest open space project in Manhattan since the completion of Central Park, Hudson River Park is transforming four miles of decaying industrial waterfront into a beloved, urban recreational paradise. Our mission includes protecting and educating the public about our river sanctuary—all with the intention of creating a healthier, more sustainable city. For more information, please visit www.hudsonriverpark.org.
