For the 2015 Summer Workshop, students will explore the choreography and creative procedures in Bill T. Jones' celebrated work Story/Time inspired by John Cage's Indeterminacy. Each day we will delve into rigorous training in contemporary technique and partnering, as well as explore material both learned and generated through the creative methodologies and structures of the work. The week will culminate in a showing of our own version of Story/Time. The workshop will be led by members of the company.
