The U.S. premiere of the UK's most celebrated Hip-Hop dance theater company, Boy Blue, comes to Lincoln Center, bringing movement at its most fluid, distilled, and skilled. Resolute and unapologetic, Cycles is a tenacious exploration of Hip-Hop dance in all its forms. As The Evening Standard raves, "There can be few people to whom British Hip-Hop dancing owes a greater debt than choreographer Kenrick Sandy and composer Michael Asante." Experience the connection between the movement on stage and the rhythm, groove and bounce of the music, as nine powerful dancers fill the space in what feels like unending motion. <https://lincolncenter.org/series/lincoln-center-presents/boy-blue-presents-cycles-546>
