Welcome to CAMPFIRE, a multisensory dance experience at the end of the world. Squatters in a deserted building are refugees in a city where resources are scarce. When survival is their primary objective, their humanity comes into question. In this glimpse of an apathetic future, the audience is intimately involved in testing the resilience of our human capacity for empathy.

Created and Choreographed by Tony Bordonaro & Ingrid Kapteyn
Originally Produced by Beyond the Bund in Shanghai, China, June 2017
