From the Horse's Mouth is about reintroducing Charles Moore to new audiences. His artistry as a dancer, teacher, and choreographer helped to shape the New York dance scene of the 1960s, '70s, and early '80s, and his legacy deserves to be remembered and celebrated.

It begins with a Master Class with Audrey Madison and founding company members, featuring excerpts from the choreography of Charles Moore. This free, fun dance class is open to all; however, registration is requested.

Next, an Interactive Conversation exploring Charles Moore's early years, dance career, company, and choreography. This program is free and open to all; however, registration is requested.
