This program is about reintroducing CHARLES MOORE to new audiences in a unique, one-time-only, legacy-based event, acclaimed for its humor, honesty, and artistry, FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH. Charles Moore's artistry as a dancer, teacher, and choreographer helped to shape the New York dance scene of the 1960s, '70s, and early '80s, and his legacy deserves to be remembered and celebrated.

This special event marks the first collaboration between Clark Center NYC and From the Horse's Mouth (FTHM), the acclaimed multi-disciplinary dance/theater company known for combining storytelling with exceptional dancing. The program will feature personal accounts and stories from Moore's students, company members, musicians, administrators, and colleagues—those who knew him best.
