Enzo Celli teaches Choreographic Composition in Contemporary Dance.
May 29, 2020, 11:30 New York Time.

Starting from the book "The Hero's 2 Journeys" by Michael Hauge, using cinema thanks to the works of Alfonso Cuarón and M. Night Shyamalan, Enzo Celli investigates the issue of modern contemporary storytelling to offer a key to interpreting it, providing technical tools to deal with the theme of choreographic narration.

A Masterclass useful not only for choreographers who want to tackle the crucial theme of storytelling in contemporary languages but also for all the dancers and performers who have made contemporary arts their area of reference.
