New York City-based dance company, Chutzpah Dance, returns to the stage this summer with the debut of PLAYGROUND at Arts on Site on Saturday, August 9, 2025. This new choreographic work will immerse audiences into a world built on half-truths and hopscotch, where imagination collides with illusion, where nothing is quite what it seems. Through a bold fusion of contemporary and tap dance, the work explores the blurry boundaries between fantasy and deceit, guided by the nostalgic rhythm of play. Anchored in childlike wonder, mischief, and slight of hand, PLAYGROUND invites audiences to look closer—then dares them to trust what they find. Can we believe what we see?

Rooted in Chutzpah Dance's signature style, the performance celebrates the tension between structure and spontaneity. It offers an escape from the conventional world, reminding audiences of the importance of curiosity, wonder, and movement as tools for connection.

In addition to the premiere of PLAYGROUND, the evening will also feature the debut of the newly launched Chutzpah Dance Training Company, a program designed to provide advanced training and performance opportunities for early-career dancers. Local guest artists round out the playbill, including: Aryanna Allen, Sabina Fritz, Taylor Gordon, Morgan Holden, Claudia Logi, Sarah Lutzky/SLUT Dance Collective, Cecly Placenti and Kristen Klein, Bridget Ryan Dance Company, Sonja Stahl, and Colleen Unda.
