My name is Jasmin Vrbanc and I am an artist, performer and dancer. I am writing this email invitation on behalf of Entertainment X Primary company and CEO Sara "Primary" Lieck. We want to share a collective idea with you and your staff.

As you know this year is the 50th anniversary of Stonewall movement and the celebration of World Pride in our city. We feel the dance community is rarely represented and EXP wishes to break this normality of representation during NYC Pride 2019. By uniting together our goal to make a stand and shed a light during pride that resembles a time to celebrate love, unity, and freedom. Pride has been consumed by mass marketing stunt pulled by other companies to market their services. The astronomical participation fee can only be affordable to those multi billion dollar companies that have nothing to do with serving the LGBTQ community. We can speak on this topic amongst others that feel passionate about.

Wish to invite you to participate in this year pride and march with us to represent the NYC dance community on June 30th! Each company will receive a designated space to perform their own artistic work or a collaborative work for representation while marching in the parade. Plus pride merchandise.

In order to cover participation fee we invited a lot of dance companies from NY so this will become more affordable for everyone.

If you and your team are interested in marching with EXP in Pride 2019 please let us know by April 15th.

Participation fee is $250 for a group of 10 people. This allows for freedom and flexibility to split the fee amongst your group however you choose!
