Be a part of the launch of New York's next great dance organization! Join in the excitement as Movement Headquarters Ballet Company, under the direction of Barry Kerollis, introduces four new works to local audiences. Company Debut performances include Stravinsky's Rite of Spring interpreted as a modern day mating ritual, a collaboration with German violin duo The Twiolins, a pas de trois to the music of Kodály, and Distinct Perceptions - a contemporary ballet work to the music of Max Cooper exploring mental illness and the distinct views of those afflicted.
