Brooklyn education nonprofit Dancewave has added new Youth Online Dance Classes, now open for registration!

Creative Dance introduces class takers to the world of dance through playful prompts and guided explorations. Classes are highly imaginative and encourage creativity through engagement with props, sensations and sound. Students will practice various exercises that focus on coordination, improvisation, energy and composition. All class takers are encouraged to investigate their own way of moving in a structured and supportive environment.

Online classes require access to a device with a camera and a speaker.

Class tuition: $10/drop-in or $50/6-week session

Teaching Artist: Katie Skinner
