CROSSROADS is a dance, film, and cross-disciplinary performance series centering the work of queer, BIPOC, and feminist artists. Presented by Pioneers Go East Collective, the fall 2021 series will feature in-progress works by 12 artists with diverse aesthetic and conceptual approaches to dance and performance-making.

Pioneers Go East Collective launched CROSSROADS in 2017 in partnership with Judson Memorial Church. The format provides artists with both an opportunity to present work in a low-pressure setting that encourages experimentation and a space to share their creative practices with other artists and audiences. The series is multigenerational, focusing on community to foster a network of support, exchange, and dialogue. In addition to the performances, CROSSROADS offers workshops by participating artists and Pioneers Go East collaborators.

The fall 2021 curatorial team includes guest artist/curator Hilary Brown-Istrefi (creative director of Same As Sister and a Jerome Foundation awardee), Philip Treviño (Bessie Award-winning lighting designer, co-founder of Pioneers Go East Collective), and Gian Marco Riccardo Lo Forte (NYSCA awardee and co-founder of Pioneers Go East Collective).

Performances will take place November 4 and December 9 and 16, at 8pm, at Judson Memorial Church, 55 Washington Square South (between Thompson and Sullivan Streets), in Manhattan. Judson's accessible entrance is at 243 Thompson Street. Use the elevator to get to the Meeting Room on Level 3. Performances are free and open to the public. Advance registration required at <https://pioneersgoeast.org/upcoming>. Note: For listings only. All are welcome to attend.

All guests will be required to show proof of vaccination and to wear a face covering at all times while they are at Judson Church. Please note that the performers will perform maskless, but are fully vaccinated and observing New York State's Department of Health protocols for in-person events.
