Have you ever wanted to be part of the NYC Pride Parade? This is your opportunity! The Queer Big Apple Corps (QBAC) is a marching band of over 100 members with musicians, color guard, and now, a dance crew. We perform at a variety of pride parades including NYC Pride Parade. This year we will be marching at the World Pride Parade in Washington D.C. If there was ever a time to make our Queer voices heard in our nation's capitol it is now! The QBAC Dance Crew was a new addition to our marching band in 2024, so we are still in our starting era. We are inviting more dancers to join us and help us spread positivity and love about our Queer culture through music and dance. We will be holding an introductory workshop for interested people on Thursday February 13 at 7 pm at The Richman Education Complex located at 317 E. 67th Street in Upper Eastside Manhattan. There you will receive more information about our organization and get a feel for our dance esthetic. Then you can decide if this would be something you want to do. Come join us! See you soon!
