Mark DeGarmo Dance's Dance for Dance for Social Change 2024 celebrates MDD's 37th anniversary as a leading NYC not-for-profit dance organization. The party celebrates our 37-year commitment to bring our scientifically evidence-based dance-and-literacy program to the least-resourced public elementary students of color, communities, and families in all five NYC boroughs. Without us, there is often no dance in these schools. The celebration includes food and drink, a dance lesson, dancing to DJ Steve, a silent auction, and a showcase of the children dancing. We honor acclaimed Dancers, Teachers, Directors, and Choreographers Phyllis Lamhut & Douglas Dunn with our "Educational Visionary" Lifetime Achievement Award 2024. We welcome Alberto del Saz & Joan Finkelstein as guest presenters.

Dance for Dance is an annual community celebration that raises awareness and funds to support our vision, mission, and programs. That mission integrates education, performance, and intercultural community through dance. We use dance to engage and empower students. Our program, Partnerships in Literacy through Dance and Creativity, was cited as "a national model" by the National Endowment for the Arts. President Obama commended Dr. DeGarmo and Mark DeGarmo Dance for "your service to your communities and the nation." Manhattan Borough President Gale Brewer designated Nov. 17, 2017 as "Mark DeGarmo Dance Day in Manhattan." Miss America 2019 Nia Imani Franklin accepted MDD's Arts Education Advocacy Award 2019.

ABOUT Phyllis Lamhut

Phyllis Lamhut, choreographer of 100+ works, principal dancer for 20 years with Nikolais Dance Theater and Murray Louis Dance Company, performed globally on stages, television, and National Endowment for the Arts Dance Touring and Artists in Education programs. Phyllis Lamhut Dance Company was formed in 1970. She directed National Association of Regional Ballet Craft of Choreography Conference; National Canadian Composer/Choreographer Seminar; Dance and Music Workshop, Israel; Venice Biennale Move Man project; Carlisle Project New Impulses; and was Choreography Advisor/Editor for Joyce-Soho Residency. She is a recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship, awards from NYS Council on the Arts and NY Foundation for the Arts, Mary Flagler Charitable Trust, and Meet the Composer/Choreography Project. The National Endowment for the Arts awarded her 16 Choreography Fellowships. She was on the NYU Tisch School of the Arts faculty 1987-2022. In 2013, she was Balasaraswati/Joy Ann Dewey Bienenke Endowed Chair for Distinguished Teaching from American Dance Festival. In 2022, American Dance Guild awarded her a Lifetime Achievement Award.

ABOUT Douglas Dunn

Douglas Dunn is a New York dancer and choreographer working since 1971. He was a member of Merce Cunningham Dance Company (1969-73), and a founding member of Grand Union, a troupe that rollicked from 1970 to 1976. Following duet, solo, and film work in the 1970s, he formed Douglas Dunn + Dancers in 1978. In 1980 he set Stravinsky's Pulcinella on Paris Opera Ballet. He collaborates with poets, painters, sculptors, musicians, composers and playwrights. In 1998 he was awarded a NY Dance and Performance Award (Bessie) for Sustained Achievement, and in 2008 was honored by the French government as Chevalier in the Ordre des Arts et des Lettres. He leads Douglas Dunn + Dancers, teaches Open Structures at New York University's Steinhardt School, and presents salons at his studio at 541 Broadway, Manhattan. His book of collected writings, Dancer Out of Sight, is available at amazon.com.
