DANCES FOR A VARIABLE POPULATION PRESENTS

REVIVAL 8: THEN AND NOW

FREE PERFORMANCES AND WORKSHOPS AT NYC'S

AILEY CITIGROUP THEATER, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16 AT 5:00PM

Infusing the essence of iconic dance works by master choreographers of the 20th century, Dances for a Variable Population (DVP) will lead two performances and workshops of Revival 8: Then and Now, Saturday, November 16 at 5:00PM at Ailey Citigroup Theater. The performance and workshop at Ailey Citigroup Theater will be DVP's inaugural indoor event.

REVIVAL 8: Then and Now is a unique series set to unite legendary pieces from renowned choreographers, creatively inspired by esteemed ex-dancers who once graced their companies. These former dancers, with a deep connection to the original works, will reinterpret iconic works such as Martha Graham's Steps in the Street, Tina Ramirez's Carmen, Jerome Robbins's Dances at a Gathering, and Paul Taylor's Esplanade, tailored for the older adult population.

Celebrating its 15th year of free performances, DVP will also present a free All Together Dance Workshop open to members of the public on Saturday, November 16 at Ailey Citigroup Theater at 6:00PM (following the 5:00PM performance). These interactive workshops highlight movements by guest artists and feature exercises from DVP's MOVEMENT SPEAKS® curriculum. Reservations are recommended. ABOUT DANCES FOR A VARIABLE POPULATION

Founded in 2009 by former professional dancer Naomi Goldberg Haas, Dances for a Variable Population (DVP)'s mission is to promote strong and creative movement among older adults of all abilities, enabling them to build creativity, improve their mental and physical health, strengthen social connections, and enhance quality of life. Our artistic vision is to bring participatory dance experiences and performances to older adults throughout NYC, and to train teaching artists to expand our impact across NY and beyond. DVP's free workshops and public performances promote a democratic, interactive, and inclusive vision of dance that highlights the power and beauty of older bodies.
