The MoveShop is dedicated to training well-rounded performers, so dancers and actors alike are welcome to attend and learn each other's craft while improving their own. Classes are taught by the best dance, acting, improvisation and composition instructors in New York City. The intensive offers an immersive, professional and supportive environment to aspiring and professional performers alike. The composition class will result in a final film performance and open showing. The final edited film will be available to students after the intensive to use for their reels.

Go to www.moveshop.org/classes/summer2014 to sign up. Admission is on a rolling basis so we encourage students to sign up early while spots remain.
