The Playground NYC allows dancers to experience various choreographic styles and ideas, engage with a new community of dancers, and gather resourceful information and inspiration from the array of choreographers involved. In turn, established choreographers are paid for their creative investigations, are given free space to explore new movement with professional dancers, and are provided with the opportunity to establish relationships with new dancers and fellow choreographers.

BIO:

Ellenore Scott is a NYC based choreographer and performer. Scott was a finalist and All-Star on the hit television show, "So You Think You Can Dance?" and performed with Janet Jackson at the Essence Music Festival. She appeared on many television series including: Glee, The Ellen Show, The Blacklist, Smash, The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel to name a few. In May 2019, Scott will be staging and choreographing Memphis at the Cape Fear Regional Theater in Fayetteville, NC. She is the Associate Choreographer for King Kong: The Musical on Broadway and was the Associate Choreographer for Head Over Heels on Broadway.
