Our teaching artists will instruct participants in styles including ballet, modern, Afro-Caribbean, and jazz. Beyond expanding your skills and repertoire, our team will aim to give you actionable direction about navigating the day-to-day realities of being a practicing artist, suggest ways to capitalize on your strengths, and provide the foundation necessary to cultivate your artistic voice. You'll have the chance to speak directly with E125 Artistic Director Tiffany Rea-Fisher, get networking and career-building advice from E125 Executive Director Julianne Slater, confer with a Board Certified Physical Therapist and licensed Nutritionist to learn how to better develop your body, and perform internationally presented E125 repertoire at a culminating studio showing where you're the star!

With an eye toward embracing everyone from an advanced high school student to a regularly auditioning college level dancer, this summer workshop presents a unique opportunity to learn from talented instructors, engage with elite industry figures, and connect with your fellow artists. Don't miss out on this incredible experience to build your skills, ignite your passion for dance, and find a community. Mark your calendars and expect to EMERGE as a stronger artist!
