

Saturday, November 5, 2016

EXPOSED - Four Contemporary Dance World Premieres

Company: Neville Dance Theatre
Venue: Actors Fund Arts Center
Location: Brooklyn, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Rachel Neville

NY based contemporary dance company Neville Dance Theatre returns to Brooklyn's Actors Fund Arts Center with a full lineup of new, neo-classical and contemporary ballet works by Artistic Director Brenda R. Neville and guest choreographers Billy Blanken and Ursula Verduzco.

Premieres include EXPOSED, a three section work incorporating hand held lights, is a social commentary on internet stalking, increasing public surveillance and the diminishment of individual privacy. BLESSED, inspired by the musical phrasings of Karl Jenkins' 'Benedictus', as arranged and performed by 2Cellos, depicts the souls journey into the afterlife. EPIDERMIS, a duet for two women, explores our need to portray a fake version of ourselves. BRAHMS' DOUBLE CONCERTO, an athletic, a neo-classical work, set to and inspired by this intricate score.

"Ambitious and provocative...Neville's choreography is original and inventive. See a Neville Dance Theatre production the minute you can. You will have your senses awakened and your mind stirring." - Liv Cummins, freelance writer

Don't miss this captivating, diverse and entertaining production of new work premieres.

Sponsored by: Art for Life & Education, PhysioWellness and Freed of London, USA.

Neville Dance Theatre
160 Schermerhorn Street
Brooklyn, NY, 11201
917 517 2175
<https://neville-dance-exposed.eventbrite.com>

Schedule
November 5, 2016: 3:00pm, 7:30pm

< back

previous listing • next listing