Written and Choreographed by Jack Ferver

Performed by Reid Bartelme, Jack Ferver, Lloyd Knight, Garen Scribner, and James Whiteside

Everything Is Imaginable, is an evening-length interdisciplinary performance work examining and juxtaposing the lives and technical virtuosity of its queer performers. In turns manic and poetic, the work problematizes ideas of genre, sexuality, success, and friendship, destabilizing the regulations and social codes that are always at play, both in the theater and in life.
