"Everything is Leaving" is a dance-based work conceived and directed by Teddy Tedholm in collaboration with the artists of tedted Performance Group. The work examines life as a series of exits that create room for new events and considers the effect of presenting work with the knowledge that all events of past and present are happening at once. Performances are expected to run about one hour and take place in a converted loft space at 110 Waterbury St, Brooklyn, NY.

Performed by Haleigh Nelson, Jordyn Santiago, and Teddy Tedholm.

Friday, February 1st: 7pm.

Saturday, February 2nd: 7pm. (followed by talk back moderated by Amanda Kmett'Pendry).

Sunday, February 3rd: 6pm.
