This is an immersive house performance party hosted by our favorite Latina grandma. We call her 'Ama de Casa'. She is an older Catholic Latina woman, mother of a huge household. Rooted in tradition, she seeks order and sets the rules. She feels like home. She teaches you fear. She teaches you kindness. She is the push and pull between moral and religious rigidity, and round welcoming femininity. She is the "Mother of the House" and instills so much in Latina culture, she is the keeper of tradition. This performance delves into the three dimensional human being behind her story, told by her.

PERFORMERS & COLLABORATORS:
Talia Moreta - Director / Choreographer
Belinda Adam - Assistant Director
Nuria Martin Fandos - Performer
Lucca Damilano - Text Director
