

Friday, October 23, 2020

For C.J. Virtual Premiere

Company: Davalois Fearon Dance
Venue: Virtual Event
Location: Bronx, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Photo by: Argenis Apolinario, Dancer: Mikaila Ware

Join us for the virtual premiere of the BRIClab work-in-progress performance of For C.J.. The performance will be available for streaming at 7pm EDT on Friday, October 23rd, 2020. A post-performance discussion with historian, dancer, curator and co-creator of Black Dance Stories, Charmaine Warren, and Dava at 8pm EDT. The For C.J. Virtual Premiere was also supported by a 2020 Project Grant from New Music USA.

Learn more about For C.J. on the DFD website: <https://www.davaloisfearon.com/for-cj.html>

Get your tickets here! www.davaloisfearon.com/virtualtheater

For C.J. Virtual Premiere was supported by a 2020 Project Grant from New Music USA. The development of For C.J. was made possible with partial financial support from Dance/NYC's Dance Advancement Fund, made possible by the Ford Foundation, Bronx Council on the Arts, the Bronx Museum of Art, individual contributions, the MAP Fund Grant, BAX, BRIC, BAAD! Bronx Academy of Arts and Dance and RestorationART ChoreoQuest dance residencies. For C.J. was created in part from "As Above, As Below," a site-specific piece created in dialogue with Gordon Matta-Clark's exhibition "Anarchitect" at The Bronx Museum of the Arts and The BxMA Co Lab commission program. BxMA Co-Lab is made possible by the Mertz Gilmore Foundation. Davalois Fearon is fiscally sponsored by the Foundation for Independent Artists, Inc., a non-profit organization administered by Pentacle (DanceWorks, Inc) and also receives capacity-building support from Pentacle's Administrative Resource Team (ART).

Davalois Fearon Dance
Virtual Event
Bronx, NY, 10467
<http://www.davaloisfearon.com/virtualtheater>

Schedule
October 23, 2020: 7:00pm

< back

previous listing • next listing