GALLIM Methods

A practice of GALLIM's technical and creative methodology, through a guided conversation between the body's network of systems and the imagination.

GALLIM Repertory: Sama by Andrea Miller (2019)

"Forget conventional, oversimplifying or automated rules of reasoning. The body is the chance of being without reducing." - Andrea Miller

Kayla Farrish's Creative process is Inspired by content, meaning, feeling, and movement, "I strive to relate and transport through the work.". Utilizing screenwriting, specific movement studies, writing, photography, and narrative, Kayla hopes to share a spectrum of the experiences of the others around them.

Faculty Bios: Andrea Miller is a choreographer, creative director, and the artistic director of world renowned movement production company GALLIM. A sought-after creator and collaborator for dance, film, fashion, and the visual arts, Miller is known for her exploration of the essential elements of human behavior and the alchemy of human expression through the medium of movement and performance. Miller is a Guggenheim, Sadler's Wells, New York City Center, and Princess Grace Fellow, and was featured in Forbes as an entrepreneur and leader in the dance world. Her visual art collaborations include a sound, sculpture, and performance installation for Lincoln Center featuring 25 community members processing the pandemic through breath, music, theater and dance, and works for Art Basel, Frieze Festival, and a film shared by The Guggenheim Museum.

Guest Artist: Kayla Farrish a NY based dancer, choreographer, director, and photographer. She is a North Carolina native born into a dance-loving family. Both independently and through companies, she has worked as a rehearsal assistant and teaching artist, instructing at various programs including University of NC School of the Arts, University of the Arts, The Juilliard School, NYU Tisch Dance Program, and local dance organizations, studios, and beyond.

Eligibility: GALLIM Summer Intensive is open to all movers ages 18+ who have a strong interest in training in GALLIM methods and GALLIM repertory by Andrea Miller. Rigorous physical training in class and GALLIM repertoire is a significant part of this intensive.
