Arts Brookfield partners with Works & Process for a series of four performances at Manhattan West Plaza in celebration of the 50th anniversary of hip-hop. Referencing different styles of street dance, the pieces that will be presented were each originally commissioned by Works & Process for the Guggenheim Museum and marries the institution's renowned circular rotunda space with the cypher, an open performance circle prevalent in hip-hop. Originally conceptualized in-the-round, this series therefore adapts naturally to Manhattan West Plaza's performance circle. Each Wednesday night will spotlight a different artistic group and feature beatboxing, breaking, flexn, krumping, live bands, DJ sets, and MCs.

PERFORMANCE SCHEDULE:

- July 5, Sets at 6, 7 & 8PM – The Missing Element, featuring The Beatbox House
- July 12, 6PM – Layerhythm
- July 19, Sets at 6, 7 & 8PM – Ladies of Hip Hop
- July 26, 6PM – Ephrat Asherie Dance: UNDERSCORED highlights followed by a dance party celebration of NYC's club culture with DJ Bravo LaFortune
