Acclaimed as 'virtuosic' and 'desperate for attention,' Hard/Femme Dances was formed in 2018 by Kelsey Rondeau and Hunter Sturgis. Merging dance, theater, spectacle, and always character-driven, the company has made solo works involving mad housewives, amorous clowns, drug-fueled party-goers, a French music hall diva, and more. They have shown their work at Gibney Dance Center, Spoke The Hub, BAX, and the House of Yes. They are excited to be returning once again to Triskelion Arts, where they will be premiering a new work in June 2023.
