Hip-Hop/Street Styles
Taught by VG/DE Teaching Artists via ZOOM
July 13-17, 1:00-2:30pm, EST

Cost: $25 per class. Single class option is available.

Description: These upbeat classes will be taught by Dance Entropy's rotating roster of teaching artists, each specializing in various styles such as commercial hip-hop, house, Afro beat, funk and urban freestyle. Originating in New York in the 1970s, hip-hop's energetic and expressive movements have had a global impact on dance and popular culture.

Schedule:

7/13: Hip-Hop with Melissa Moore
7/14: Popping/Hip-Hop with Manon Bal
7/15: Afro Beat with Lawson Pinder
7/16: Jazz/Funk with Nicole Kadar
7/17: Bustin' Moves (House) with Eva Bust A' Move

Hip-Hop/Street Styles is part of Valerie Green/Dance Entropy's Virtual Summer Intensive. Dance Entropy is also offering an "Enter the Body" 5-day Choreography Workshop from 10AM-12PM. Students may sign up for "Enter the Body" and/or Hip Hop as desired.

All classes are open-level and tailored to both beginner and more experienced dancers - inclusive for all!

"[The VG/DE Summer Intensive] has taught me how strong I can be and has expanded my limits to new extents."
