Hollis and Nattie present an evening of their shared makings that prioritize research, rigor, and their studies into the capacity of the body and bodies. This evening is a space for experimentation, dialogue, and communal gathering. They'll be sharing a version of their duet, Transmuting from Work Up 5.1 that's been reimagined for 12 incredible special guest artists and a new duet in process, Salt for Curing. There will be a wine reception following the show! Limited number of tickets available. All ticket proceeds go directly to the guest artists. Tickets can be purchased day of the show, at the door, via Venmo or Cash. More info below!
