This Chicago-based audience favorite returns to the Pillow with a sensational program. The program features Jirí Kylián's vivid Falling Angels, a stark all-female work danced to "Drumming" by contemporary composer Steve Reich, and the dramatic Mediterranean-inspired work Gnawa, by Spanish choreographer Nacho Duato. PACOPEPEPLUTO, by Hubbard Street dancer and resident choreographer Alejandro Cerrudo, closes the show with a trio for three male dancers set to the sweet songs of Dean Martin and "rich in circular turns, jumps and dashing Olympian form" (The Chicago Tribune).
