I ENVY THE KANGAROOS by Maritea Dæhlin

Saturday, May 6

8pm // $20

A solo performance by Maritea Dæhlin that takes us to the limit of our loneliness.

I ENVY THE KANGAROOS is a devised solo-performance which engages the audience to a poetic and visual world whilst exploring the idea of otherness and ownership. As in her earlier work, Maritea Dæhlin plays with the idea of creating a non-linear poetic world filled with physical actions and text, as well as the idea of selling artistic solutions to real, jet absurd, problems. In this way the stage is transformed into a complex world of emotions, images, rituals, anecdotes, songs and objects, which welcome absurdity and humour, bringing us to the limits of our loneliness. The piece has been shown at various venues in Chiapas and Oaxaca in Mexico; Chicago in USA and in Oslo, Norway.

Featuring:

Maritea Dæhlin: Concept, director, text and performer
Ursula Lascrain Holguin: Costume and Props
Juan Sebastian Mariscal: Outside eye
Soh Tokunaga: Assistant

Maritea Dæhlin is an artist that is interested in human behaviours, emotions, rituals and encounters. Her devised theatre performances and interactive live works are minimal, playful, non-linear and absurd. Both her solo and collaborative work leave an open space for the audience to make up their own points of view, letting their emotions being touched and the freedom to not have to understand everything. She holds a BA (First Class HONS) in Devised Theatre with Digital Arts at Dartington College of Arts in England and an MA in Psychodrama at Escuela Mexicana de Psicodrama and Casa Luz. She also studied acting at Nordic Black Express in Norway. She has one foot in Mexico and one in Norway, with two hands to move freely without borders.
