Pop, lock, spin, and glide with ILL-Abilities, the internationally renowned breakdancing crew featuring professional artists with and without disabilities from around the world. Join a hands-on creative movement class at The Oasis on Josie Robertson Plaza, led by Lincoln Center Teaching Artists and open to visitors of all ages and ability levels who are ready and curious to explore their own dance skills without limitations. Following the family-friendly workshop, local NY dancers and ILL-Abilities breakers, featuring Canadian Luca "Lazylegz" Patuelli will share their gravity-defying and muscular feats of b-boy bravado with a live performance at Hearst Plaza that showcases their uncommonly powerful expression of hip hop swagger and style.

The pre-show workshop and performance are General Admission, first-come first-served.

Limited Advance Reservation will also be available for the performance at 12:00 pm, opening the Monday before the event date.
