These drop-in based classes follow the principles of American Ballet Theatre's National Training Curriculum with modifications to better serve the adult students. Strong emphasis on alignments and clean technique, while giving ample room for artistry to flourish. For those familiar with ABT's NTC, this is an approximately level 4/5 class.

*$17/class, cash only

Joan Liu started her performing career with Taipei Royal Ballet. She later pursued her academic endeavors with New York University, accumulating to an M.S. in biology and an M.A. in dance education specializing in American Ballet Theatre's ballet pedagogy (certified in all levels from pre-primary to level 7 and partnering). Joan is currently dancing with Gwen Rakotovo Company and offers private lessons in dance and yoga.
