JUNTOS Collective is a non-profit organization dedicated to intercultural exchange and community building through dance. Serving primarily Latin American populations, JUNTOS uses dance to uplift and empower vulnerable communities globally. This performance includes work by past and present JUNTOS volunteers, representing several generations of JUNTOS. See how JUNTOS programs have shaped them into professional artists and leaders in the dance world! Performers include: Mikaela Brandon, Alicia Delgadillo, Julia Hallisey Horner, Lorena Jaramillo, Richard Sayama, and Katarina Smith.

JUNTOS is proud to partner with Del Maguey Single Village Mezcal for this event. Each audience member will receive a coupon for one complimentary mezcal cocktail made with VIDA from the village of San Luis Del Rio before or after the show at Goodnight Sonny, located at 134 1st Ave.

Del Maguey Single Village Mezcal celebrates the art of the family producer and considers the mezcal made by its indigenous partner families in Oaxaca and Puebla to be "liquid art." The traditional methods of these producers, combined with the diverse micro-climates and terroir of Mexico, give each Del Maguey expression a unique, complex character.

Del Maguey partners with arts organizations like JUNTOS Collective to create a shared language of artistic expression across all mediums, and invites you to enjoy a mezcal cocktail made with VIDA from the village of San Luis Del Rio at Goodnight Sonny before or after this program.
